I am the Way, the Truth and the Life

FIRST READING

Acts 6:1-7

About this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenists made a complaint against the Hebrews: in the daily distribution their own widows were being overlooked. So the Twelve called a full meeting of the disciples and addressed them, 'It would not be right for us to neglect the word of God so as to give out food; you, brothers, must select from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, filled with the Spirit and with wisdom; we will hand over this duty to them, and continue to devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the word.' The whole assembly approved of this proposal and elected Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

The word of the Lord continued to spread: the number of disciples in Jerusalem was greatly increased, and a large group of priests made their submission to the faith.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 32:1-2, 4-5, 18-19

*Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.*

SECOND READING

1 Peter 2:4-9

The Lord is the living stone, rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him; set yourselves close to him so that you too, the holy priesthood that offers the spiritual sacrifices which Jesus Christ has made acceptable to God, may be living stones making a spiritual house. As scripture says: See how I lay in Zion a precious cornerstone that I have chosen and the man who rests his trust on it will not be disappointed. That means that for you who are believers, it is precious; but for unbelievers, the stone rejected by the builders has proved to be the keystone, a stone to stumble over, a rock to bring men down. They stumble over it because they do not believe in the word; it was the fate in store for them.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a consecrated nation, a people set apart to sing the praises of God who called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 14:6

Alleluia, alleluia!

*I am the way, the truth and the life,
says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me.
Alleluia!*

ASSISTANCE DURING THE CORONAVIRUS OUTBREAK

We are conscious that there may be times when members of our parish community will need help in this time of the Coronavirus pandemic.

If you think that you might have the virus or have been exposed to the virus, the first step is to contact your doctor.

You may then be asked to spend some time in social isolation in your home either because you are suffering from the virus but don't need to go to hospital or if someone you have been in contact with, e.g., family, friends or neighbours, has contracted the virus.

In this case you may need help with shopping, a meal or you just might need to talk to someone.

The following people have offered to be points of contact for anyone in the parish who needs help:

THE HOLY FATHER'S 2020 PRAYER INTENTIONS: MAY

For Deacons

We pray that deacons, faithful in their service to the Word and the poor, may be an invigorating symbol for the entire Church.

DEACONS: ORDAINED FOR SERVICE

This weekend we hear in the Acts of the Apostles how seven men were chosen and ordained by the laying on of hands to carry out service among the believers. The Church sees these as the first ordained deacons. Deacon is a translation of the Greek word diakon meaning servant.

The Second Vatican Council reinvigorated the ancient order of deacons, reinstituting the permanent diaconate, allowing married men to be ordained.

A deacon can be seen as a bridge or envoy, whose special ministry is to take the Christian message into the heart of the world, and, by the same token, dedicating themselves to pastoral care, to bring the needs and cares of the world into the heart of the Church's worship and fellowship.

Deacons are called:

- To bring God's Word to believers and unbelievers alike. They can preach sermons and teach the faith e.g., through the RCIA programme which prepares people for baptism.
- To preside over public prayer, to baptise, to assist at marriages and bless them;
- To give the last rites with communion to the dying, and to lead the rites of burial;
- To perform works of charity in the name of the bishop;
- To celebrate faithfully the liturgy of the hours (selected psalms prayed each day) for the Church and for the whole world.

Archdiocese of Melbourne

The vocation of deacon is the fastest-growing vocation in the Church in Australia. Catholic Outlook.

Pope Francis has recently set up a new commission to study the possibility of women deacons in the Catholic Church. April 8, 2020. Vatican News
This will be a topic considered at our own Plenary Council.

A MOTHERS' DAY PRAYER

Lord we pray for mothers everywhere.

Bless mothers who are expecting a baby. Calm their fears and keep their new little life safe.

Bless mothers who have babies and toddlers and are in a busy season of bottles and endless laundry.

Bless mothers who have busy school-aged children. Give them an extra measure of wisdom to answer questions, model maturity and mould young hearts

Bless mothers who parent teens.

Allow them the grace to let go when needed and the courage to provide firm boundaries when required.

Bless mothers of adult children that they may savour the joy of friendship with their child.

Bless single mothers with the strength to fulfill many roles. Provide them with supportive people in their lives.

Bless grandmothers. May they find deep joy in their grandchildren.

We pray for mothers who have lost a child and for women who are grieving because of infertility

Give us eyes to see women around who struggle to mother well

We pray for women who have never had children, may they learn to mother in other ways.

Thank you for our mothers.

They gave us life and for that gift we are forever grateful.

We pray for mothers everywhere, including those no longer with us.

In Jesus' name Amen.

MOTHERLY IMAGES OF GOD

"Can a woman forget her baby, or a woman the child within her womb? Yet even if these forget, yet I will not forget you." Isaiah 49:15

Jesus likens Himself to a mother hen in Matthew 23:27 when He weeps over Jerusalem.

"How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you would not."

WE HAVE THE BEAUTIFUL TRADITION OF MARY AS OUR MOTHER.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER YR A

Lord, let Your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in You.

Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just;
for praise is fitting for loyal hearts.
Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp,
with a ten-stringed lute sing Him songs.

For the word of the Lord is faithful and all His work is to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right
and fills the earth with His love.

The Lord looks on those who revere Him,
on those who hope in His love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA Feast Day May 13th

Between May 13 and October 13, 1917, three Portuguese children -
Francisco and Jacinta
Marto and their cousin
Lucia dos Santos - received

apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria near Fatima, 110 miles north of Lisbon.
Mary asked the children to pray the rosary for world peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia.

Mary gave the children three secrets.
Following the deaths of Francisco and Jacinta in 1919 and 1920 respectively, Lucia revealed the first secret in 1927. It concerned devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The second secret was a vision of hell. When Lucia grew up she became a Carmelite nun and died in 2005 at the age of 97.

Pope John Paul II directed the Holy See's
Secretary of State to reveal the third secret in 2000; it spoke of a "bishop in white" who was shot with bullets and arrows by soldiers. Some linked this vision to the assassination attempt against Pope John Paul II in St. Peter's Square on May 13, 1981.

The feast of Our Lady of Fatima was approved by the local bishop in 1930; it was added to the Church's worldwide calendar in 2002.

GOSPEL

John 14:1-12

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Trust in God still, and trust in me.
There are many rooms in my Father’s house; if there were not, I should have told you. I am now going to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too. You know the way to the place where I am going.’

Thomas said, ‘Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?’ Jesus said:

‘I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.
No one can come to the Father except through me. If you know me, you know my Father too. From this moment you know him and have seen him.’

Philip said, ‘Lord, let us see the Father and then we shall be satisfied.’ ‘Have I been with you all this time, Philip,’ said Jesus to him ‘and you still do not know me?’

‘To have seen me is to have seen the Father, so how can you say, “Let us see the Father”? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I say to you I do not speak as from myself: it is the Father, living in me, who is doing this work. You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; believe it on the evidence of this work, if for no other reason. I tell you most solemnly, whoever believes in me will perform the same works as I do myself, he will perform even greater works, because I am going to the Father.’

EXPLORING THE WORD

Today’s gospel draws our attention to the time when Jesus will depart from the disciples (the Ascension is two weeks away). When Jesus is gone, the disciples must continue the task that he has begun. One can imagine their fear and uncertainty in being left with such a monumental challenge. Philip’s question, ‘Lord, how can we know the way?’, shows their fear clearly enough. But help is available. Jesus is the way, the truth and the life. He is both the map and the destination.

Disciples are called to adopt Jesus’ lifestyle, his approach to God, to others, to all creation. In living as Jesus did, living the life of faith, the disciples will know the truth and will have life. This life of faith and living the way of Jesus, God’s way in the world, will enable the disciples not only to continue the work of Jesus
but to perform even greater works.

- In what ways does living this life
of faith get tested each day?
- What great works are you now called on to perform?
- What are some ways to continue to deepen your knowledge and love of Jesus?

DID YOU NOW?

This text comes from a long section of John’s Gospel known as the ‘farewell discourse’, during which Jesus gives final instruction to the disciples at the Last Supper. Perhaps this echoes something of your own experience of the period of mystagogy.
