FIRST READING

Acts 4:32-35

The whole group of believers was united, heart and soul; no one claimed for his own use anything that he had, as everything they owned was held in common.

The apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power, and they were all given great respect.

None of their members was ever in want, as all those who owned land or houses would sell them, and bring the money from them, to present it to the apostles; it was then distributed to any members who might be in need.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 117:2-4, 15-18, 22-24

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING

1 John 5:1-6

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten by God; and whoever loves the Father that begot him loves the child whom he begets.

We can be sure that we love God's children if we love God himself and do what he has commanded us; this is what loving God is – keeping his commandments; and his commandments are not difficult, because anyone who has been begotten by God has already overcome the world; this is the victory over the world – our faith. Who can overcome the world? Only the man who believes that Jesus is the Son of God: Jesus Christ who came by water and blood, not with water only, but with water and blood; with the Spirit as another witness – since the Spirit is the truth.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy those who have not seen me, but still believe! Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 20:19-31

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

*'As the Father sent me,
so am I sending you.'*

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

*'Receive the Holy Spirit.
For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'*

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

It is most important that we all continue to check in when arriving at the Church. We cannot become complacent. If you check in by using the QR on your phone please put a QR on our sign-in sheet so that we know how many people are attending.

Thank you all for your co-operation in these difficult times.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

In the Jubilee Year 2000, Pope Paul II decreed that from that year forward, the Second Sunday of Easter would be celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. This was proclaimed at the Canonisation Mass of St. Faustina Kawalska, who worked throughout her life to make all aware of the merciful love of God.

Loyola Press

The message of Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And He wants us to recognise that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy. Passionist Sisters USA

"Let us have the courage to come back to Jesus to meet His love and mercy in the sacraments. Let us feel His closeness and tenderness, and then we will also be more capable of mercy, patience, forgiveness and love." Pope Francis

Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity. Diary of St Faustina

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Second Sunday of Easter, Yr.B
(Divine Mercy)

*Give thanks to the Lord for He is good,
His love is everlasting.*

Let the sons of Israel say:

'His love has no end.'

Let the sons of Aaron say:

'His love has no end.'

Let those who fear the Lord say:

'His love has no end.'

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;

His right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount His deeds.

I was punished, I was punished by the Lord, but not doomed to die.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord;
we rejoice and are glad.

LEADLIGHT WINDOWS AT ST JOAN'S

The Rose Window is called Spirit of Light and the leadlight windows on either side of St Joan's are called Encounter Windows. Their plaques are being blessed at this weekend Masses at Victor. We thank Ray Klecko and Mark Leaney who donated them to the Parish in our centenary celebrations.

EASTER IN DARWIN

My wife and I spent Easter in Darwin, and caught up with Bishop Charles who asked that his love be passed on to all in our parish. He looks well and seems to have settled well in Darwin. Sunday morning Mass was packed to overflowing. St Mary's Cathedral has the largest ceiling fans I have ever seen, and even with those working, and every side door opened it was still a little warm. Such is the heat in Darwin. Paul Kennelly.

R I P BRENDAN NAGGY was a young boy who tragically drowned on Hindmarsh Island at Easter 1993. His plaque is on the right hand side of St John's altar. We think of him in our prayers.

FLOODS DELUGE - DILI, TIMOR-LESTE

Devastating floods have hit Timor-Leste, forcing thousands to take refuge and leaving at least 27 people dead, with 13 of those killed in Dili, including at least six children. Comoro parishioners have been affected by the floods as the Comoro River burst its banks. Dili was under an extended COVID lockdown when the floods hit. Please keep Timor-Leste and our Comoro sister parish in your prayers.

Australian parishes have received a request for help from the Salesians who administer the Comoro Parish. They are using their Don Bosco Training Centre as a major relief centre providing shelter and food for those who have lost their homes and possessions.

PALLIATIVE CARE ON THE FLEURIEU

An information session on Palliative Care in this region will be held on April 28th @ The Gospel Centre 1 to 3 pm.

Please ring 0466 246 672 if you wish to attend.

Coming at a time when the question of legalising euthanasia is being debated in our parliament, this topic of palliative care deserves our serious attention.

In the Southern Cross this month Jenny Brinkworth's article The other side of the dying story is worth reflecting on..

When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

DID YOU KNOW?

- The period from Easter Sunday to Pentecost is known as the Great Fifty Days and is an integral part of the Lent-Easter- Pentecost cycle.
- There is an ancient tradition that Thomas preached the gospel as far east as India.

EXPLORING THE WORD

This gospel is one of transformation. The fear of the disciples is transformed by the gift of peace and the doubt of Thomas is transformed by his encounter with the risen Jesus. With this transformation, however, comes responsibility. The disciples are not to simply bask in the joy of Christ risen but are sent to continue the mission of Jesus in the world: 'As the Father sent me, so I am sending you.'

When Thomas is told by his companions that they have seen Jesus, he places his own conditions on faith. He will not believe unless he sees. Jesus must fulfil the expectation that Thomas has. The following week, he is forced to confront this and is brought to realise the pointlessness of imposing conditions on God. Only then can he see that God's ways are often surprising. Only after accepting this truth does Thomas come to understand what faith really is.

SHARING THE TRADITION

'Those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven. Those whose sins you shall retain, they are retained.' Jesus' disciples are to continue the work of reconciling all people to God. His power to forgive sins is conferred on the Church. Through baptism, God's forgiveness becomes available to us, but human beings do not lose their tendency to sin just because they are baptised. The sacrament of reconciliation is there to assist the faithful to acknowledge human sinfulness and seek the forgiveness and reconciliation of God.
