FIRST READING

Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim. By those who love her she is readily seen, and found by those who look for her. Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them. Watch for her early and you will have no trouble; you will find her sitting at your gates. Even to think about her is understanding fully grown; be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you. She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go, in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 62:2-8

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him.

We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them; to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and ready: you know not when the Son of Man is coming.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus told this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. ## PSALM FOR 32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

My soul is thirsting for You, O Lord my God

O God, You are my God, for You I long;
for You my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for You
like a dry, weary land without water.

So I gaze on You in the sanctuary to see Your strength and Your glory.
For Your love is better than life,
my lips will speak Your praise.

So I will bless You all my life,
in Your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise You with joy.

On my bed I remember You.
On You I muse through the night
for You have been my help;
in the shadow of Your wings I rejoice.

My soul is thirsting for You, O Lord my God.

when a life of leisure and luxury could easily have been hers. This choice endeared her in the hearts of people throughout Europe. Daily she would take bread to hundreds of the poorest in the land who came to her gate. (Excerpt: Franciscan media)

CHRISTMAS APPEAL 2017

Envelopes will be placed on the seats in the churches for the weekend of 11/12 November.

Your donation will enable your local St Vincent de Paul Conference to immediately assist the needy members of our communities.

Please support this appeal because

NOBODY SHOULD GO HUNGRY AT CHRISTMAS.

BRING AND SHARE TABLE

Thanks to all who brought along goods for our first Bring and Share table at Victor. We ask you all for your continued support.

KNIGHTS OF THE SOUTHERN CROSS

During this month of all souls we pray for all members of our order in the Southern Fleurieu Branch who have passed away. May perpetual light shine on them Lord, and eternal rest be granted to them.

- ◆ 26th November Wine Raffle will begin at Goolwa. Following week at V.H. There will be 35 tickets available at $10 each
- ◆ 10th December Goolwa Pageant. Please speak to Paul if you can help with members' mobility
- ◆ 17th March 2018 St. Patrick's Day dinner and celebrations at South Lakes golf club.

The next meeting of the Knights will be held at St. John's Church Goolwa at 4pm on 16th November. All membership enquiries please ring Paul on 0402 852 825

ST MARGARET OF SCOTLAND Feast Day 16th Nov. (1045-1093)

In 1070, at the age of 25, Margaret married the king of Scotland, Malcolm Canmore.

As queen, Margaret's faith had a strong influence on her husband's reign.

She softened his temper and led him to practice virtue.

She dignified the court, providing an example of purity and reverence that led others to follow in her path.

The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him."

At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.

DID YOU KNOW?

- A solemn procession from the house of the bride's father to the house of the bridegroom was an important part of the Jewish wedding ceremony. These bridesmaids are a 'guard of honour' to greet the groom on his return with his bride. Sometimes problems with the marriage contract or the unhurried exchange of gifts between families lead to long delays in their return.
- Jesus referred to himself as a bridegroom (Mk 2:19-20) and the Church is sometimes referred to as the bride of Christ.

EXPLORING THE WORD

As the public ministry of Jesus draws to a close, Matthew introduces the themes of delay and the need to be ready for the second coming of Christ. Matthew's community were living in the 'in-between' times. Christ's victory over death through his resurrection had begun a new phase in history but it was not yet complete. Completion would only come with his return in glory. We again hear the familiar imagery of the messianic banquet or wedding feast to which all are invited. But only those who live with an attitude of openness and readiness will come into the great hall. Today's parable speaks strongly of the need to live in the present with an eye to the future. We cannot live only for the 'now' with no thought for our ultimate goal, nor can we ignore the sufferings and responsibilities of the present and set our hearts only on heaven.

THE YEAR OF YOUTH

The Australian Bishops have identified the liturgical year of 2018, beginning on the first Sunday of Advent (3 December 2017), as a national Year of Youth.

The Year of Youth in Australia is an opportunity to reflect on the gift of young people in the Church and society and to consider what we do as parishes, agencies, schools, and communities through the lens of young people.
