FIRST READING

Acts 5:27-32,40-41

The high priest demanded an explanation of the Apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 29:2, 4-6, 11-13

*I will praise you, Lord,
for you have rescued me.*

SECOND READING

Apocalypse 5:11-14

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation – everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ is risen; the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 21:1-19

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this:

PSALM FOR THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

*I will praise you, Lord,
for you have rescued me*

I will praise you, Lord, You have rescued me
and have not let my enemies rejoice
over me.
O Lord, You have raised my soul from
the dead,
restored me to life from those who sink
into the grave.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love
Him,
give thanks to His holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment: His favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes
with dawn.

The Lord listened and had pity,
The Lord came to my help.
For me You have changed my mourning
into dancing;
O Lord my God, I will thank You
for ever.

*I will praise you, Lord,
for you have rescued me*

RETREAT IN DAILY LIFE - WEEK 2

Growing Our Friendship
with Jesus

This week Jesus
shows us how
friends accept,
receive, share,
heal.

Please remember us in your prayers.

ST JOAN'S CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS

JANUARY 2020 - JANUARY 2021

One of our centenary projects is a Living History Booklet. Currently a team of interviewers lead
by Jocelyne Randabel -
Williamson and Mike O'Halloran is interviewing various parishioners about their experiences of faith and life at St Joan's. It is proving to be a very moving experience as we listen to their stories and very difficult to keep to 300 - 400 words!!!

THANK YOU MARGARET

Margaret Fracek, a long time member of the Bulletin team, has decided it is time to retire from her active Bulletin duties. Margaret's contribution over the

years has been immeasurable. She types out the psalm, sends in our saints for the week and writes articles for other special events. She keeps an eye on the rest of the Bulletin including the accuracy of the rosters and our grammar. Her knowledge of "Publisher", the computer programme we use, is comprehensive and her skills as a proof reader have saved us many an error. Margaret has had a secret weapon in this last task and that is her husband Len who with his eagle eye also checks our work. So Margaret and Len we would like to express our gratitude for your years of service to communications in our parish community and Margaret
we are happy to know that you will still continue on as a consultant!

Margaret will continue with her popular children's colouring in pages and information
booklets. These will now be at special liturgical events during the year such as Christmas
and Easter.

Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

After the meal Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep.' Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'

'I tell you most solemnly, when you were young you put on your own belt and walked where you liked; but when you grow old you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt round you and take you where you would rather not go.'

In these words he indicated the kind of death by which Peter would give glory to God. After this he said, 'Follow me.'

DID YOU KNOW?

- The Sea of Galilee is also known as the Sea of Tiberias.
- Jesus' triple repetition of his question to Peter, 'Do you love me?' echoes the three denials of Jesus by Peter on the morning of his execution.
- The Greek word for fish, ichthus, is an acronym of the Greek words for 'Jesus Christ, Son of God, Saviour'. The fish was an early symbol used by Christians to denote Christ.
- The appearance of Jesus to the disciples in last week's gospel occurred in the upper room in Jerusalem where they had celebrated the Passover feast. Here, the disciples have returned to Galilee in the north.
- Early tradition holds that Peter met his death by being crucified upside down in Rome.
