FIRST READING

Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:
Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spite the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 65:1-7, 16, 20

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

SECOND READING

Galatians 6:14-18

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Col 3:15,16

*Alleluia, alleluia!
May the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you.
Alleluia!*

GOSPEL

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy

Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of His name.
O render Him glorious praise.
Say to God: How tremendous Your deeds!

'Before You all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to You, sing to Your name!
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous His deeds among men.

He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in Him;
He rules for ever by His might..

Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what He did for my soul.
Blessed be God Who did not reject my prayer
nor withhold His love from me.

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy

RESOURCES FOR OUR PRAYER LIFE

During our recent visit from Father Phillip Marshall he mentioned that prayer can happen in ways other than just traditional praying. This can be in the form of reading and reflecting. To help us with appropriate materials we can access books from the Catholic Resource Information Service (CRIS) in Adelaide which arranges for books to be delivered to parishes. We are thinking about starting this service at St John's, Goolwa later in the year if there is enough interest. If you would be interested in this service please contact Mary Burford 0427 611 917.

PARISH WEEKLY EVENTS

Tues 9 July - Maintenance Group

Tues 9 July - St Joan's Social Club

Wed 10 July - St Vincent de Paul

Sat 13th July - Pastoral Care Group

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

In the past this Sacrament was referred to as Extreme Unction or the Last Rites and people only received it once, often on their death bed. Now it is administered both to the dying and to those who are gravely ill or are about to undergo a serious operation. It is a ritual of healing appropriate not only for physical but also for mental and spiritual sickness. Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide.
Father Vinh will administer the Sacrament on request (this can be at any time) and especially if someone is going into hospital for a serious operation. In summer, we plan for a weekday Healing Mass with Anointing of the Sick both at Goolwa and Victor Harbor for those not well or home bound.

CENTENARY PROJECTS

1. HISTORY PROJECT

The committee wants to publish a Living History booklet. A small group of interviewers is recording the life and faith of around 45 parishioners of different ages, length of time in the parish and ethnicities. So far, about half the interviews have been written and photos taken. If you would like to contribute in any way or offer any anecdotes about the Church you may have or suggestions of people who need to be remembered, please contact Jocelyne Randabel-Williamson 0402 341 071.

2. CALENDAR - 2020

The Centenary Committee is producing a calendar. In each date box, corresponding to a parishioner's birthday, we are planning to insert your photo if you wish to be included. To that effect, we are taking photos of participants after all the Masses of the weekends 13-14 and 20-21 July. Details will be announced at those Masses. Thanks in advance. Rob Randabel-Williamson.

ST VINCENT de PAUL

Vinnies regrets, due to logistical reasons, as from 1 July 2019 we can no longer accept into the Vinnies' shed donations of furniture, mattresses, electrical items or household goods. Good clean clothing is always welcome & can be placed in the blue Vinnies bin beside the shed at the rear of St Joan's, V.H.

to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road.

‘Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, “Peace to this house!” And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house.

‘Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, “The kingdom of God is very near to you.” But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, “We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near.” I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.’

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. ‘Lord,’ they said ‘even the devils submit to us when we use your name.’ He said to them, ‘I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.’

DID YOU KNOW?

- The image of the vineyard is often used in the Old Testament as an image of God's people. They must be tended to and cultivated well so that the harvest is a rich one.
- The church has always understood its main function to be one of announcing the Gospel to others. This is the mission of the church, and the work is carried out by missionaries.

- All baptised people are called to be a part of this missionary activity of the church.

EXPLORING THE WORD

At the very end of Luke's Gospel, Jesus' final instruction to the disciples is to proclaim the Good News to all the nations (Luke 24:47). In today's text, it is almost as if Jesus is throwing them into the deep end! They are sent out on their first missionary assignment as raw recruits, with little to help them, but the lessons they learn here will be greatly needed later. Whatever they seek to achieve in Jesus' name, they are given the assistance they need. Jesus, however, reminds them that the crucial factor is not that they are powerful or that they are successful. What really matters is that they are doing the will of God, in Jesus' name, and this is the reason for their ultimate salvation.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

At this early stage of the gospel, the disciples are hardly formed yet for the task they are given. Have you ever been given a job to do that set you on a 'steep learning curve'?

- Offer the gift of hospitality to someone this week. Make them welcome and give something of 'the peace of Christ' to them.
