FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 103:1, 24, 29-31, 24

*Lord, send out your Spirit
and renew the face of the earth.*

SECOND READING

Romans 8:8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of

RESPONSORIAL PSALM FOR FEAST OF PENTECOST

*Lord, send out Your Spirit
and renew the face of the earth.*

Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great You are,
How many are Your works, O Lord!
The Earth is full of Your riches.

You take back Your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth Your spirit, they are created;
and You renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in His works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to Him.
I find my joy in the Lord.

*Lord, send out Your Spirit
and renew the face of the earth*

ST BARNABAS

Feast Day June 11th c.75

Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul.
Barnabas is spoken of simply as one who dedicated his life to the Lord. He was a man "filled with the Holy Spirit and faith. Thereby, large numbers were added to the Lord." Even when he and Paul were expelled from Antioch in Pisidia - modern-day Turkey - they were "filled with joy and the Holy spirit".

COME AND SEE

Do you want to deepen your faith in a small community? We are starting a new Christian Life Community group where we will pray the gospel, using Lectio Divina and Ignatian Contemplation followed by a sharing of our lives.
The first meeting will be in the Annex on Monday 17th June at 2.00pm. Please contact Jocelyne Randabel-Williamson on 0402 341 071.

FEAST OF PENTECOST

BIRTHDAY OF THE CHURCH

Come O Holy Spirit fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

ST ANTHONY OF PADUA

Feast Day 30 June (1195-1231)

Anthony was a Franciscan Friar.
Forced by illness to lead a simple life of study and menial tasks he was eventually recognised as a man of prayer and a great Scripture scholar and theologian. Like all saints, Anthony is a perfect example of turning one's life completely over to Christ. He, whom popular devotion has nominated as finder of lost objects, found himself by losing himself totally to the providence of God.

ABORTION BILL

In February South Australia's independent
Law Reform Institute was asked by the State Government to consider changes to the State's abortion laws. Ms Vickie Chapman the Attorney-General is of the opinion that the Private Members Bill by Tammy Franks that is currently before the house is too broad and fails to adequately regulate these medical procedures which is critical to get right from the outset. Ms Chapman said in February that the Law Reform Institute was expected to finalise its report within six months. Let us keep this matter in our prayers and continue to voice our opinion to our state members of parliament.

DECEASED - Ellen Francis Turner died during the week. Her funeral was held on Friday at St Joans. May she rest in peace.

sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 14:15-16,23-26

Jesus said to his disciples:

'If you love me you will keep my commandments.

I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever.

'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him.

Those who do not love me do not keep my words.

And my word is not my own: it is the word of the one who sent me.

I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Pentecost was originally a Jewish harvest festival, celebrated fifty days after the Passover. It was one of the great pilgrimage festivals of the Jews, and this is why so many pilgrims were present in Jerusalem on the day when the Spirit was manifested in the lives of the disciples.
- The Christian feast of Pentecost is fifty days after Easter and is the culmination of the Lent-Easter-Pentecost cycle.
- The church teaches that the Holy Spirit brings both gifts and fruits to the faithful (see Sharing the Tradition).
- Pentecost Sunday was often known as Whit Sunday or Whitsun, especially in England.

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

Red is the colour that is often associated with the Spirit, and red vestments are worn by the priest on Pentecost Sunday. Red symbolises the intense love or 'fire' of the Holy Spirit. Other symbols of the Spirit are tongues of flame, wind and a white dove. All have their origins in Scripture. Each of these conveys something of the mystery of the Spirit of God, which is beyond human understanding.

SHARING THE TRADITION

Coming to faith is not so much acquiring a new set of beliefs about God as it is discovering God's existence within the realities of our daily lives. The gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit help us to be more attuned to the actions of God in our lives and in our world. At baptism, the Spirit comes upon the newly initiated Christian, and at confirmation, the Spirit of God is renewed and confirmed in the faithful.

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are: wisdom, understanding, counsel (right judgment), fortitude (courage), knowledge, piety (reverence) and fear (awe) of the Lord.

The church lists twelve fruits of the Spirit: charity (love), joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control and chastity.
