FIRST READING

Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the wearied, he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear.

For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.

The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 21:8-9, 17-20, 23-24

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

SECOND READING

Philippians 2:6-11

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are; and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Phil 2:8-9

*Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross.
Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!*

GOSPEL

Luke 22:14-23:56

(heavily abridged)

When they reached the place called The Skull, they crucified him and the two criminals also, one on the right, the other on the left. Jesus said, 'Father forgive them; they do not know what they are doing.' Then they cast lots to share out his clothing.

The people stayed there watching him. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.'

THE GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION - HOLY PLACES APPEAL

The annual collection for the support of the church in the Holy Land takes place on Good Friday.

This collection promotes the missionary work of the Church in the Holy Land by providing welfare assistance to the local Christians in areas such as health, education, employment and housing. Parishes, schools, orphanages and medical centres throughout the Holy Land rely on assistance from the Good Friday collection. The collection is also used to maintain 74 churches and shrines associated with the life of Jesus, visited by millions of Catholics every year.

PROJECT COMPASSION - PALM SUNDAY

Please donate to Project Compassion 2019 and give children living with disabilities in Vietnam the opportunity for an education and inclusion in their community. Lives change when we all give 100%. You can donate through Parish boxes and envelopes, by visiting www.caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or phoning 1800 024 413.

DIOCESAN RENEWAL PRAYER PARTNERS

The Visitation team has issued an invitation for any parishioner to become a prayer partner for Diocesan Renewal. On committing to be a Prayer Partner you are joining a network of people across our Archdiocese who have committed to pray in solidarity for the ongoing renewal in our Archdiocese and parishes. You can choose your own prayer or one from a list of prayer options given by the Renewing Parishes Team. If you would like to be part of this network please put your name on the sheet provided in the foyer. After Easter we will register the names from our parish and provide you with a certificate. Thank you.

GOOLWA INTERCHURCH NEWS

A stall will be running at the wooden boat festival on April 27 and 28 April selling small wooden boats for children, with funds going to help pay for school chaplaincy on the south coast, which cost $60,000 to run. If you have any wood off cuts or wood to donate, please leave at Goolwa Uniting Church office

PSALM FOR PASSION SUNDAY YEAR C.

*My God, my God,
why have you abandoned me?*

All who see me deride me.
They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
"He trusted in the Lord, let him save
him;
Let him release him if this is his friend."

Many dogs have surrounded me,
a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet,
I can count every one of my bones.

They divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone,
my strength, make haste to help me !

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.
"You who fear the Lord give him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons."

*My God, my God,
why have you abandoned me?*

HOLY WEEK

Holy Week is, as suggested, the holiest week of the Christian year. It's also the busiest.

The week starts on PALM SUNDAY with the commemoration of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. It continues on MAUNDY THURSDAY with a retelling of the story of the Last Supper, and Jesus' betrayal by a disciple. On GOOD FRIDAY the church gathers to remember Jesus' death on the cross.
On Easter we proclaim THE RESURREC- TION, and celebrate the assurance that not even death could separate us from God's grace.

The soldiers mocked him too and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said, 'if you are the king of the Jews, save yourself,' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well,' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said. 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it; we are paying for what we did. But this man has done no wrong. Jesus,' he said, 'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied, 'today you will be with me in paradise.'

It was now the sixth hour and, with the sun eclipsed, a darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. The veil of the Temple was torn right down the middle; and when Jesus had cried out in a loud voice, he said, 'Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.' With these words he breathed his last.

DID YOU KNOW?

- The institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper is reported in the gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke but not in John. In John (6:1-15), the setting is the multiplication miracle of the loaves. Instead, in John's Gospel, Jesus washed the feet of his disciples at the Last Supper (13:1-11) in an act of service.
- All four gospels report the trials of Jesus before the Sanhedrin or governing council of the Jews and before Pilate, but only Luke tells of Jesus being sent to Herod.
- Luke's Gospel emphasises the mercy and forgiveness of the Lord towards those who repent. Even on the cross, Jesus continues in this. He assures the repentant thief of his place in paradise. This incident is only reported in Luke's Gospel.

- Jesus is crucified at Calvary, a Latin translation of the Semitic word Golgotha, which means 'skull'.

EXPLORING THE WORD

So much of what is at the heart of Christianity is present in today's long gospel reading:

- The institution of the Lord's Supper: 'This is my body which will be given for you; do this in memorial of me... This is the cup of the new covenant in my blood which will be poured out for you'. It is in the Eucharist that we find the source and summit of our faith. Explore what that means.
- The ministry of service: 'I am among you as one who serves.' The church and all its members are at the service of the world.
- Peter's denials: like Peter, we so often fail, but we too can repent and reorient our lives.
- The centrality of the cross reveals that God, in Jesus, entered into human suffering and death and overcame the darkness. This death revealed for all time that God is in solidarity with all the pain of human beings, and that nothing can separate us from the love of God.
