FIRST READING

Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works.

From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being.

The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water.

Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust.

When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries – and the waters will not invade the shore – when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 8:4-9

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING

Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Apoc 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

THE HOLY FATHER'S 2019 PRAYER INTENTIONS: JUNE

Evangelisation:

The Mode of Life of Priests

That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are most poor.

EXPLORING THE GOSPEL WITH LECTIO DIVINA

Is held each Sunday night at 6pm in the Annex.

CONTEMPLATIVE LIVING COMMUNITY

We meet for Lectio Divina (Scripture Reflection) and meditation on Monday afternoons at 4.30 for 2019. Everyone is welcome. Please contact Anne Weygood for details. 0429 653 844.

TAIZE PRAYER GROUP SERVICE

You are invited to our Taizé prayer service on this Wednesday 19th June at St John's Goolwa, 10.15am after Mass. It is an ecumenical service so please come along and invite your friends from other Churches. Morning tea after the service.

COME AND SEE

Do you want to deepen your faith in a small community? We are starting a new Christian Life Community group where we will pray the gospel, using Lectio Divina and Ignatian Contemplation followed by a sharing of our lives. The first meeting will be in the Annex on Monday 17th June at 2.00pm. Please contact Jocelyne Randabel-Williamson on 0402 341 071.

The film is Tory Story 4, with tickets at $15 each, includes lucky door prize drawn on the night. Tickets can be purchased at Goolwa Primary School front office.

PARISH PASTORAL CARE

You may notice that someone hasn't been at Mass for a while or know of someone who is ill or in hospital and would appreciate a visit from Father or a parishioner. Please let Father know or one of the Meeters and Greeters who welcome us to Mass.

Refugee Week

This week we remember our refugees, especially those on Manus Island and Nauru and those on the mainland who will be denied the financial and practical support they need if changes are made to the Status Resolution Support Service (SRSS) program. "If it wasn't for community organisations and churches those people would be destitute".

Justice for Refugees SA

THANK YOU to all the parishioners who helped with the catering for the funeral of Ellen Turner. We are in need of more volunteers to support us in our funeral duties. Please contact Anita Willis on 8552 8751.

RECYCLING BIN - ST JOAN'S KITCHEN

Please note: We would like to help reduce waste going to landfill. Please use recycle bin for all paper, cardboard, cans, foil, milk and drink cartons, hard plastics, glass.

NO soft plastics, food scraps (these can go in special recyclable bags in bottom drawer and go in green waste bin). Please empty any liquids before placing in bin. Thank you for your co-operation.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM FOR THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

*O Lord our God, how wonderful
Your Name in all the earth.*

When I see the heavens, the work of Your hands,
the moon and the stars which You arranged,
what is man that You should keep him in mind,
mortal man that You care for him?

Yet You have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour You crowned him, gave him power over the works of Your hand,
put all things under his feet.

All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts,
birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters.

*O Lord our God, how wonderful
Your Name in all the earth.*

FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

In the icon that forms part of our Vision and Mission Statement we see the Three Persons seated at a table.

Contained in the centre of the circle is the lamb, slain, the holy meal brought to the table. The space at this table is on our side. We are invited to join the group at the table and receive the heart of their being for ourselves. We are invited to complete the circle in the world by our own response.

Father, you sent your Son to bring us truth and your Spirit to make us holy. Take us into the heart of your love. Help us to show that love to all we meet.

ST THOMAS MORE

Feast Day June 22nd 1478 - 1535

Described as "a man for all seasons," More was a literary scholar, eminent lawyer, gentleman, father of four children, and chancellor of England. An intensely spiritual man, he would not support the king's divorce from Catherine of Aragon in order to marry Anne Boleyn. Nor would he acknowledge Henry as supreme head of the Church in England, breaking with Rome, and denying the pope as head.
Few saints are more relevant to our time. In the year 2000, in fact, Pope John Paul II named him

patron of political leaders. He did not compromise his own moral values in order to please the king, knowing that true allegiance to authority is not blind acceptance of everything that authority wants.

VENERABLE MATT TALBOT

Feast Day 19th June 1856-1925

Matt can be considered the patron of men and women struggling with alcoholism. After a few years of schooling, Matt obtained work as a messenger for some liquor merchants;
there he began to drink excessively. For 15 years -until he was almost 30 - Matt was an active alcoholic. One day he decided to take "the pledge" for three months, make a general confession and begin to attend daily Mass. He began to pray as intensely as he used to drink.
Only alcoholic men and women who have stopped drinking can fully appreciate how difficult the earliest years of sobriety were for Matt. He had to take one day at a time. A good model for any life. Franciscan Media

GOSPEL

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.

But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said:

All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

DID YOU KNOW?

- The early Christians struggled to understand the belief that God is both one and three. Many great councils of the church were held to clarify what this meant and to find the language with which to describe the trinitarian relationship between Father, Son and Spirit. It was not until the Council of Constantinople in ad 381 that the doctrine of the Trinity was defined.
- Many of the prayers of the church express our belief in a triune God (three persons in one). One of the greatest and most simple of these prayers is the sign of the cross, in which we dedicate ourselves 'in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit'.
- St Augustine described the Trinity in terms of the Lover, the Beloved and the Love that exists between them.
- St Patrick reportedly used the shamrock to explain the three persons in one God to the pagans of Ireland.

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

Human beings will always struggle before the mystery of God, who is one but also three. Augustine's idea of the Trinity as a communion of love is a very rich and powerful image. Can our own communion of love with others teach us something of the life and love of the Trinity?

EXPLORING THE WORD

The people of Israel were unique among the nations of the ancient world in that they held to a belief in one God. But Jesus speaks of this God as 'Abba', Father. There is an implied relationship with this God. Jesus also speaks of the Spirit, and again, there is a relationship implied between Jesus and the Spirit, for this Spirit will continue to speak the words of God and of Jesus and will glorify them. Thus begins the early church's deep reflection on the mystery of Jesus and the relationship between Father, Son and Spirit. This relationship was ultimately formulated in what we now call the Trinity.

In this text, Jesus is addressing all those who will search for the truth down the centuries to come. All of us are led to complete truth and understanding through the actions of the Spirit, who directs us to the Father and the Son: 'At the heart of the mystery of the Trinity is a Father whose love is incarnated in the Son who gives life to the world, and in the mutual love which exists between the Father and the Son and touches our lives as the Holy Spirit' F. Maloney
